

Brian Walker

Director of Aviation

Professional Biography

Brian Walker has lived in the North Texas area for over 20 years, and he considers himself blessed to be serving clients in their search for real estate property. Real Estate has offered Brian a career he never knew he always wanted. After 20 of years of success in corporate aviation including property management, sales and contract negotiation, his entrepreneurial spirit left him wanting more. Becoming an agent was the perfect solution that combined his corporate skill set with his passion for helping others while building his own company. When not working, Brian enjoys spending time with his wife and two children. He is an avid golfer and enjoys boating, snow skiing and watching Texas Tech University sporting events.

Aviation Background

Brian began his aviation career in 2003 as the Office Manager for Monarch Air, a flight school, in McKinney, Texas where he was promoted to General Manager before venturing on to work in the FBO business. Brian joined...
