

Nick Chessar

Vice President

Professional Biography

An Oregon native, Nick attended Oregon Episcopal School and graduated in 2007 with the Bishop Dagwell Award for outstanding academics. Significant achievements also include recognition of his peers as an elected as one of five Team Leaders of Multnomah County Search and Rescue. After graduating OES, he attended college at the University of Colorado at Boulder and graduated in 2011 with a B.A. in Communication. During his undergraduate time at Colorado, Nick undertook multiple entrepreneurial opportunities including sales for a start-up marketing company, retail sales, writing for a travel destination company, and construction sales. Balancing class, work and hobbies, Nick developed excellent time management and networking skills while also developing his professional exposure and demeanor. He conducts himself in a manner which is respectful and at all times is client-oriented in focus.
