

Zach Boatwright

Managing Director

Professional Biography

Zach Boatwright graduated from University of the Ozarks with a degree in pre-law and minors in business administration and art/architecture. Prior to becoming a certified commercial real estate agent, Zach's background included sales, business development and management, and property management. He joined Vision Commercial in 2018. Zach works with office, retail and land properties. He strives to be conscientious, while looking for innovation. He enjoys watching developments grow into communities and thriving businesses. Zach Boatwright grew up in Cedar Hill, Texas, and has called East Fort Worth home for six years. He is a board member of Veritas Life Adventures, a non-profit ministry that provides youth with a holistic approach to health, faith and outdoor education. When he's not working, he enjoys exercising, traveling and spending time with his wife and two children.
