Professional Biography

Dru is a seasoned real estate and sales professional with practical business acumen and a consultative approach which enables her clients to meet their immediate and long-range real estate goals and objectives.

She has over nine years experience in the commercial real estate industry servicing clients with their sales and leasing needs. Prior to entering the real estate field, she was a senior executive in the high tech computer and internet industry. An entrepreneur, Dru founded a computer systems integration company, and managed the opening of a new location for a family retail business.

The depth of her experience enables her to provide value added professional services that meet the unique needs of her real estate clients. They can focus on their core business while she assists them in making informed decisions and works to make their real estate experience efficient and successful.

Dru is a Broker Associate in NJ, member of the International...
