Professional Biography

Principal and Co-founder Jeffrey Bernstein has over thirty years of experience in the real estate industry. During his career, Jeff has acted as a broker, leasing representative, and advisor to institutional and entrepreneurial owners of commercial office buildings of all asset classes in New York City, Chicago, and other office markets across the country. A recent list of owner-clients include: The Farbman Group, KBS, UBS, Ameriprise Financial, Equis, and First Winthrop Properties.

In 2003, Jeff and his business partner, Laurence B. Elbaum, started Bradford Allen Realty Services, a Chicago-based real estate firm providing commercial real estate brokerage services both locally and nationally. Since then, the firm has grown considerably and is recognized as one of Chicagoland's most active and preeminent locally-based, private commercial real estate firms.

Prior to starting Bradford Allen, Jeff began his career in New York City in 1981 at Newmark and...
