Professional Biography

Jerry Kempf has been with Unique Properties for five years and has been active in the Denver real estate market since 1978. He currently focuses on the acquisition, disposition and leasing of office and industrial properties. In addition to building sales, he also has strong, relevant experience and knowledge in land sales. His most reputable assignment is representing the well-known Dove Valley Business Park located next to Centennial Airport in Unincorporated Arapahoe County.

Notable sales transactions include the Safeway Rocky Mountain Federal Credit Union building and a wide variety of office, office/warehouse, retail, investment and land transactions. Jerry has an expansive history in providing top of the line representation services for industrial/office properties such as travel agencies, dental/medical offices, pediatric physicians, government agencies, and banking corporations.

In his early career, Jerry worked for a large design / build...
