

Karen Higgins, CCIM

Commercial Agent

Professional Biography

Karen began her commercial real estate career in 1982 in property management and leasing in Lubbock for a real estate investment trust with multiple large shopping centers. In 2007, Karen shifted her focus to investment sales and quickly demonstrated her ability to track down properties to meet her clients objectives. She earned the coveted CCIM designation. Karen represents many investors and owners in obtaining and maintaining income on their properties. Karen has many clients who trust her as their commercial real estate adviser. You will find you can rely on Karen's professional recommendations and her work to be in your best interest. Properties come and go, but a trusted relationship endures. She has relationships that span decades.

Karen has been with WestMark Commercial since 2010 and was awarded their Realtor of the Year Award her first year at WestMark. Each year Karen and Alison are at the top of the leader board with annual production...
