

Mark Mueller

Sales Associates, Retail Tenant Representation

Professional Biography

Mark is a licensed real estate sales person in New Jersey and Pennsylvania (licensed through Arrow Real Estate Services). His primary role is the representation of national and regional retailers and service providers in their local Philadelphia and New Jersey market expansions and the coordination of their US expansion strategies. He offers added value real estate services including strategic real estate market expansion planning, trade area store deployment analysis, site selection and deal negotiations. He works with both retail tenants and landlords on the leasing of retail shopping center space in strips centers, lifestyle centers and malls.

Mark is a knowledgeable and experienced real estate investment consultant, works with both investment buyers and sellers of investment grade real estate properties and assists with the acquisition and disposition of commercial multi-family, retail and residential investment properties. He offers real estate services which...
