

Michael Pontarelli

Office Manager

Professional Biography

Michael Pontarelli joined Bradford Allen in 2015 as a senior managing director. He is responsible for overseeing the third-party Asset Services practice with a focus on targeting, securing, and implementing new leasing, management, and asset management assignments and strategies. Michael's approach to asset management is integrative and engenders a collaborative culture between the management and leasing teams in order to achieve the overall financial and operational goals for each project assignment.

During his first year at Bradford Allen, the agency practice brought on eight new assignments, totaling nearly 1.5 million square feet. Michael also refined various processes, resulting in more efficient execution of asset management and leasing functions of the nearly 5.5 million square feet he oversees, which includes approximately one million square feet of out-of-state office space. As the head of the asset management team for the LG&E Center in...
