Professional Biography

Mr. York, a specialist with land, industrial and office transactions, has worked with consulting, information systems and manufacturing firms throughout the region for over twenty years. He understands the needs of businesses in transition - upsizing or downsizing, and stands ready to make your life easier when it is time for you to lease, buy or sell commercial real estate. Mr. York also consults owners of investment property (multifamily, retail, office and industrial) with a focus on both multi and single tenant (NNN) types. Born in the Midwest, Samuel York has called the Washington-Baltimore region home for the past twenty years. A lover of nature, it is not surprising Mr. York has been captivated by the abundance of golf, boating, fishing and skiing in the area. "Work smart and play well." A member of several professional organizations, church and civic groups, Mr. York looks forward to supporting your commercial real estate transactions.
