Commercial real estate firm co-founder named HBJ's Landmark Lifetime Achievement Award winner

Feb 27, 2020, 12:43pm CST

The Houston Business Journal has selected Howard Rambin III, co-founder and principal of longtime commercial real estate firm Moody Rambin, as the Lifetime Achievement Award winner for its 2020 Landmark Awards.

He is the 19th recipient of the award since HBJ started the recognition in 2000.

Rambin will receive the award at the Landmark Awards event on April 23 from 6-9 p.m. at the Marriott Marquis Houston. Click here for more information about the event.

The awards will also honor 51 real estate projects and reveal the winner in each of 19 categories. Click here to see the finalists, which were announced Feb. 25.

Rambin, a New Orleans native, and Dan Moody Jr. founded their Houston-based firm in 1969. Rambin oversees project leasing, property management, tenant representation and investment services in the office, industrial and investment divisions of the company. He specializes in representing owners and tenants in the office leasing sector.
