TENANTBOARD

A tenant marketplace designed for the modern commercial broker.

Connecting brokers with space to tenants looking for space.

Browse tenants actively looking for space.

TenantBoard by TenantBase allows listing agents and landlords to view a dashboard of active tenants interested in leasing space and submit properties that could be a good fit. If the client is interested in viewing your space, we'll make an introduction, and you'll take it from there.

Increase Listing Visibility

Upload properties to our database for tenants to browse or match with tenants actively looking for space.

View Active Tenant Leads

Browse tenant space requirements and submit your space if it's a good fit.

Never Miss a New Lead

Receive email alerts when your listing matches with the needs of one of our tenants.

Simplify your leasing experience.
